Transfer of copyright agreement – TRA2014

Scientific publishers and authors share a common interest in the protection of copyright; authors principally because they want their creative works to be protected from plagiarism and other unlawful uses, publishers because they need to protect their work and investment in the production, marketing and distribution of the publication written by the author. In order to do so effectively, publishers need a formal written transfer of copyright from the author(s) for each publication published. We therefore ask you to complete and return this form promptly, retaining a copy for your records. Your cooperation is essential and appreciated.

Publication entitled: .....

.....

Authors:.....

ID number (as in Sciencesconf): .....

Effective upon acceptance for publication, copyright (including all rights thereunder and the right to obtain copyright registration in the name of publisher, whether separately or as part of a book or otherwise) in the above publication is hereby transferred throughout the world and for the full term and all extensions and renewals thereof, to:

IFSTTAR

This transfer includes the right to translate in all languages and adapt the publication for use in conjunction with computer systems and programs, including reproduction or publication in machine-readable form and incorporation in retrieval system.,

This transfer includes the right to include the publication in a thematic volume made of TRA2014 papers, and to be published by a publisher appointed by IFSTTAR.

Right of authors

IFSTTAR recognizes the retention of the following rights by the authors:

1. The authorship of the author(s) of any invention, process or procedure described in the publication (moral right).
2. The right of photocopy or make single electronic copies of the publication for their own personal use, including for their own classroom use, provided the copies are not offered for sale and are not distributed in a systematic way outside of their employing institution (e.g. via an e-mail list or public file server). Posting of the publication on a secure network (not accessible to the public) within the author's institution is permitted.

NOTE. — All copies, paper or electronic or other use of the publication must include an indication of IFSTTAR copyright and a full citation of the book source. Please refer requests for all uses not included above, including the authorization of third parties to reproduce or otherwise use all or part of the publication (including figures and tables), to IFSTTAR, Publications Department.

Authorship

If the publication was prepared jointly with other author(s), the signing author has informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this copyright transfer and is signing on their behalf as their agent and represents that he (she) is authorized to do so. Please confirm by checking the appropriate box following the signature line. The signing author shall bear the responsibility for designating the co-author(s) and must inform IFSTTAR of any changes in authorship. If copyright is held by the employer, the employer or an authorized representative of the employer must sign. If the author signs, it is understood that this is with the authorization of the employer and the employer's acceptance of the terms of the transfer. Please confirm by checking the appropriate box following the signature line. If the author is a Government employee and this work was done in that capacity, the copyright transfer applies only the extent allowed by law and the author should sign this form. If at least one author is not a Government employee, that author should sign the copyright transfer form. Please confirm by checking the appropriate box following the signature line.

Warranties

The author(s) warrant(s) that the publication is the author's original work and has not been published before in any language. The author(s) warrant(s) that the publication contains no libellous or other unlawful statements, and does not infringe on the rights of others. If excerpts from copyrighted works are included, the author(s) has (have) obtained written permission from the copyright owners and will credit the sources in the publication.
